Red Meat Fact Finder

How many red meat meals have you tried?

Here are a few popular ones; tick them off as you cook or eat them.

Are there any favourite that aren't on the list? How many others can you name?

One cow can provide up to 1500 portions of beef!

> How many portions could all 24 million cows produce?

Agricultural jobs in Australia, like farming, need people that can think creatively, are good at problem solving and are critical thinkers.

How many jobs or careers involved in the paddock to plate journey can you list?

Did you know farmers can use satellites to monitor the amount of pasture in their paddocks?

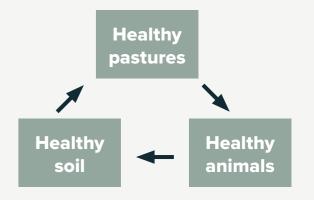

Design and build a solution to help farmers monitor and support healthy soil.

Your invention could help farmers and the climate in the future!

How does your scientific knowledge help you every day?

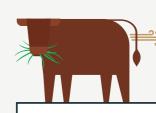

Recreate this diagram as a campaign to spread the importance of sustainable environmental care in your community.

Did you know: Most feed that livestock eat - humans can't!

Check out the Red Meat, Green Facts website redmeatgreenfacts.com.au to learn more about the industry!

The Australian Meat industry is on its way to reaching the 2030 Carbon Neutral target!

Healthy soils and sustainable practices are key to making this happen.

Watch how cattle farms are part of the solution by scanning the QR code.

Let us know about the red meat facts you find at @ausgoodmeat

